Healthcare Executive
Networking Group

Dear Healthcare Colleague:

You are cordially invited to attend the Healthcare Executive Networking Group Fall Social. Join us and network with other providers and healthcare executives from the DFW Metroplex. The goal of HENG is to work as a collective and trusted resource for our clients and prospective clients while providing health care expertise in our respective fields. We are very grateful to have you as a part of our healthcare network and hope that you can join us on the 16th.
