“THE MEDICARE PRESCRIPTION DRUG, IMPROVEMENT, & MODERNIZATION LAW”

What’s In It (and What’s Not) For You and Your Organization and What To Do About It

Speaker:

Cynthia Marcotte Stamer, J.D. – National Health Law Partner, Epstein Becker and Green, P.C.

Health care providers, payors, employers, and consumers are rushing to make sense of the broad reaching health policy reforms enacted as part of the Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement, & Modernization Law enacted by Congress late last year. Attorney and health policy advocate Cynthia Marcotte Stamer is nationally and internationally recognized for her experience and practical insights on a wide range of health policy and other health care issues. Ms. Stamer will help you understand the changes included in the new law, and the opportunities and challenges that it might present for you and your organization.

ABOUT OUR SPEAKER:

In her practice with Epstein Becker and Green, P.C., Cynthia Marcotte Stamer helps health care providers, payors, health plan sponsors, governments and a diverse array of other health industry clients to understand and respond effectively to evolving responsibilities and opportunities under new laws such as the Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement and Modernization Law and other legislative, regulatory, and operational concerns impacting on health care and health care reimbursement matters.

A highly popular author and speaker, Ms. Stamer is the author of numerous publications on health care and related matters. Her highly acclaimed publications include works that examine health care privacy and confidentiality, health and managed care contracting, staffing, credentialing, licensure, patient management, accreditation, and other regulatory, policy, risk management and operational concerns affecting health industry clients. Her writings have appeared in a wide range of publications, including a standing legal column appearing in MDNews as well as a diverse range of other works published by the American Bar Association, Aspen Publishers, the American Health Lawyers Association, the Bureau of National Affairs (BNA), Thompson Publishing, and others. Ms. Stamer also serves on the editorial advisory boards of BNA’s Employee Benefits Library on CD and the Health Care Competency and Credentialing Reports. Her insights on health care related matters also have been quoted in The Wall Street Journal, Business Insurance, the Dallas Morning News, Spencer Publications, Managed Healthcare, the Dallas Business Journal, the Houston Business Journal and a various other national and local publications.

Ms Stamer also is recognized for her leadership and community service as a health care advocate. As a past president of the Alliance, Ms. Stamer remains active in its Patient Empowerment Project, which she helped to found. She also currently serves on the National Kidney Foundation Board of North Texas, as the Vice Chair of the Welfare Benefit Subcommittee for the ABA Real Property & Probate Section, and is an active member of the American Health Lawyers Association, the health industry initiatives of the ABA Sections on Health Care, Taxation, Tort and Insurance Practice, and Real Property and Probate, the Healthcare Finance Management Association, the American Health Lawyers Association, and a host of other health industry and professional organizations.
